

Robert H. (Robin) Jenkins, Ph.D.
Independent Consultant
rjenkins2338@gmail.com
PH: 910.323.0193 Cell: 910.987.407

Robin is an independent consultant with many years of experience at the federal, state and local (community) levels. He has held leadership positions in local nonprofit agencies, state government departments, and national juvenile justice advocacy groups along with appointments to an array of other boards, commissions and advisory committees. His expertise spans many domains. Robin has practiced clinical and community psychology, developed many system-of-care and community-based intervention programs, and helped to create new agencies for at-risk, court involved youth, children and youth with mental health and/or substance use disorders as well as homeless women and women with children. He has received national and local awards for his contributions to at-risk youth and families.